THE TEMPORAL POWER

WILLIAM OF HOLLAND ON HIS PINS AGAIN

Lisbon, 29th—A Catholic Congress in favour of the restoration of the Pope's temporal power will shortly be held here. Prelates from Portugal, Spain, and many other European nations will attend it.

The Hague, 29th—King William much better. Doctors recommend change of air, and His Majesty will go to Austria and Germany early in May.

TOO MUCH BOULANGER.

LONDON PAPERS LAUGHING AT HIM.

THE SAMOA CONFERENCE.

London, 27—A Conference against slavery will be held in Lucerne in July. The Papal Delegate will preside, and Windhorst and Count Mun will assist.

The Boulangist papers exaggerate the General's reception in London, where he caused no sensation whatever. Very few English people pay him any serious attention. Boulanger has said to an interviewer:—"My advent to power would not induce me to avail of the warlike tendencies of the French people; nevertheless I accept the saying of Gambetta—"War with Germany in the thought of all good Frenchmen, but not in their mouths." It would be criminal madness for me to declare war, but equally so to bear insult. France is the equal of any great Power. She was unfortunate in 1870. To-day it is impossible to predict the result of a war.

Berlin, 28th—Samoa Commission has met, with Prince and Count Bismarck present. The Chancellor expects good result. It is thought that England will back Germany's demands. The Magdeburg Gazette advises Germany to occupy Samoa as England did Egypt.

London, 27th—The meeting of Liberal Unionists at Birmingham wound up yesterday. Hartington, Chamberlain and Henry James spoke on the political status of women.

It is expected that Mr. Parnell's examination in the trial to be resumed on Tuesday will last four days.

Copenhagen, 27th—King Christian has made the captain of the Missouri a Knight of the Order of Danebrock for saving Denmarks passengers.

London, 29th—The Daily Telegraph says that, in the absence of Buffalo Bill's Yankee circus or other phemonena, Boulanger is a blessing to London society. The Chronicle says that if he were kicked out of England it would increase his popularity in France. The Pall Mall Gazette compares him to Napoleon the Third, who wrecked France.

SPLENDID BEHAVIOUR OF OFFICERS & CREW.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Montevideo, 29th April.

The Pacific steamer John Elder, which was expected from the West Coast on Friday, turned up early yesterday morning, having been delayed in embarking the officers and crew of the unfortunate s.s. Cotopaxi, which after all has gone to the bottom after a succession of mishaps

From what I have gathered from the officers and crew of the Cotopaxi, I see that she was run into on the 8th inst., at a quarter past eleven p.m., at a spot 70 miles distant from Sandy Point, by the homeward bound German steamer Olympia.

In some quarters I heard that the Olympia struck her twice amidships. The German steamer had her bows smashed in and a portion remained stuck into the Cotopaxi. Had the accident occurred at sea the Cotopaxi would have gone to the bottom in 15 minutes. The Olympia proceeded next day to Sandy Point.

Immediately after the collision, the Cotopaxi began to sink fast and her fires went out. In a moment the boats were lowered, but as there was still steam in the boilers the engines were started and the Captain ran the steamer ashore, thus saving the lives of all on board, as well as the ship and cargo, for the time being.

Our old friend Mr William J. Hill, who was one of the passengers, writes :—

"We passed a horrid night on deck in the snow, and we were all thankful when daylight appeared. The Captain then ordered the cargo to be thrown overboard, and with the aid of blankets and hatches the holes were partially stopped.

"At 3 p.m. the Captain succeeded in floating the steamer. When the holes were out of water repairs went on day and night, the lower holes were patched, and in the afternoon of the 11th we proceeded on our voyage. If all goes well, we expect to be in Valparaiso on the 20th inst."

The Cotopaxi, thus temporarily repaired, continued her voyage, but the Captain seeing that her condition was not fit to resist the heavy sea of the usual passage, struck out by Smyth Channel to the right, a route he had never attempted before, but following the chart carefully.

On the 15th, whilst all were in the most cheerful frame of mind, finishing luncheon, there was a terrible crash.

The captain ordered the boats out nearly instantaneously, carried out in the most splendid order, a credit to the captain, officers, and crew.

All hands were lowered into the boats, even a dog. The doctor gallantly dragged up a paralytic invalid from the cabin. All hands were saved by the miraculous order and coolness prevailing on board, for no sooner were all in the boats than the unfortunate steamer slid down like a piece of lead into one hundred fathoms of water, stern first.

The crew never saw such a sudden collapse before and there was no time to save mails or anything else.

The position of the rock on which the Cotopaxi struck is not marked on the chart. Its approximate position is Lat. 48° 45' Long 74° 25' 30 W. in South reach of Smyth Channel. The steamer struck at 2.30 p.m. and went down eight minutes later.

The passengers and crew remained on the inhospitable beach from Monday till Wednesday, living on mussels and fresh water from the creeks, and a few birds. There is no truth about the story of the providential pig.

The baker had managed to save six small loaves of bread in his apron; these were given to the small children, and such were the pangs of hunger that many involuntarily grudged the little ones the feast. It rained nearly incessantly.

At the North end of Smyth Island (?) three barrels of claret floated ashore with a few pieces of sail which served for shelter. The passengers were getting ravenous.

On Thursday they were rescued by the German steamer Setos bound from Valparaiso to Sandy Point, where the wrecked passengers were landed. They met with most hospitable treatment on board the German steamer; they were supplied with clothing and all necessaries.

The majority of the passengers took the Aconcagua at Sandy Point and went on to Valparaiso. Mrs. Middleton and Mr. William Hill took the John Elder bound for the Plate and Europe. Dr. Middleton had left England for his wedding tour to the Argentine Republic. Owing to your quarantine arrangements he continued his voyage, but burst a blood vessel and died the day before reaching Sandy Point. His young widow, after so many misfortunes in so short a time, now returns to Ireland.

Victor Guani died suddenly yesterday.

The Demonstration.

Yesterday the citizens of Buenos Ayres witnessed one of the greatest, quickest, and most influential demonstrations of public opinion ever known in this city. It was doubtless the justness of the cause, the sound moral excellence of the movement, that gave to it such an unexampled triumph. Thousands of the first men in Buenos Ayres stood yesterday uncovered before the Government House to congratulate President Celman and his Ministers on having at last put an end to the scandalous and unbridled gold speculation on the Bolsa; a speculation which, if tolerated much longer, would plunge the whole country into ruin.

The committee formed at the National Theatre in Calle Florida and marched, at 2.30 sharp, to the Plaza Victoria, where the crowds were so great that all the tramways were stopped and the street traffic rendered for the moment impossible. It was pleasant to note how all the shopkeepers to a man responded to the invitation to close their doors and windows. At the portals of the Cabildo the 'comisarios' formed the multitude in lines of about 10 deep, and then the whole procession marched up Calle Victoria, down Calle Peru, and then up Calle Rivadavia to the Plaza Victoria to the Government House; but the crush and squeeze was so great that it was almost impossible for the merchants to keep the line, and when we arrived in front of the Government House we found fully three thousand people assembled, whilst in the balcony above we noticed President Celman with his ministers around him. The Committee of merchants alone entered the Government House, whilst the rest of the procession remained in the plaza below. The sight from the Government House windows was magnificent. President Celman addressed the meeting, but the crowd was so great that we could not hear one word. Sr. Mantels, President of the committee, presented Miuister Varela with the resolutions signed by over ten thousand of the merchants and traders and dealers of this market, and in a short and appropriate speech expressed to H. E. the views of the Committee representing the commerce of Buenos Aires, which views are endorsed and ratified by the thousands of signatures which he now presented to H. E. The documents are beautifully bound in red morocco and form a beautiful album which Minister Varela carried under his arm when he walked home to his house in Calle General Lavalle, accompanied by the Committee and crowds of sympathizers in the cause. The crowds in the plaza called for Minister Varela, who came forward and made a speech, not one word of which we could catch. The cheering and clapping of hands at the conclusion of Minister Varela's speech might be heard at the outer road at the conclusion of presention ceremony. President Celman received the Committee, who afterwards passed into the other saloon and saluted Minister Varela. The committee then took leave of H. E., but the crowd in the Plaza remained; and then it was that a call was made for Sr. Varela to walk home and the citizens to accompany him, and so it fell out. Mr. Varela headed the procession. Mr. Mantels, Mr. Mendez, Mr. Paats, Mr. Salvador Gomez, Mr. Domingo Cichero, Mr. Thomas Duggan, Mr. Meliton Panelo formed in line. The rest of the Committee followed, and then came merchants and others who attended in the Plaza. In fact the march home to Mr. Varelas house was even as great a demonstration as the march from the Cabildo to the Government House—and thus closed this cebrated movement, which was got up in a hurry and arraiged, we may say, between night and morning.

The demonstration is not without its lesson. Its brilliant success reflects the grand unanimity of opinion in favor of Minister Varela's decree stopping the gold speculation. There was no art or bunkum invoked to support the cause. Most of the native papers condemned what the meeting ratified; no fire-crackers, cheap music or cheap beer were resorted to. The whole movement stood on its own bottom. If the public were opposed to Mr. Varela the whole affair would have been a dead failure. But the cause was good and just, and therefore it has won. We congratulate the merchants of Buenos Ayres and Minister Varela on the result.

THE RIO NEGRO VALLEY.

(From La Prensa.)

Ten years ago the eyes of the country were fixed on the Rio Negro Valley whilst four wings of the army were marching towards that mysterious region, the traditional lair of the Pampa savage.

A youthful General, a soldier of fortune and influence, promised the nation to commemorate the anniversary of the Revolution on the banks of the Rio Negro after having pushed to tht foot of the Andes the Indian tribes. That campaign, which will be ever memorable in our history, embodied a programme with promise of security and wealth.

That country, we were told, was the Land of Promise—a zone of wealth in the hands of the savage and a patrimony the Nation should claim—smiling prairies irrigated by numberless rivulets, crossed by a noble river whose waters would carry to the ocean vessels freighted with the valuable produce of an inexhaustible territory. Nature had lavished all her gifts on the fortunate valley.

Ten years have passed since then, but what have we done with the splendid river or with the beautiful valley? The result is an indictment against the men in power.

A flotilla of several small steamers was started, but disorder and disorganization made them useless, and whilst the waters of the river are unruffled the tramp of bullocks and the lumbering roll of bullock carts are heard in the valley

Colonies of Indians were started, but depravity and speculation dissolved them.

A canal was started and a colony founded, but faulty means of communication, neglect, and other causes have defeated their aims. A strange fatality has held the region in its fatal grasp.

What can be expected from a territory without navigation, means of communication, without organization in its government, without justice? Here we see the fruits of misgovernment. - - - - - - - - -

Is it not a crying shame that the National Government should apply to the provinces for purchase of lands to start colonies when the Rio Negro valley, a national territory, is lying idle?

Congress grants concessions for thousands and thousands of kilometres through Argentine deserts, but the great southern country with its enormous natural advantages is forgotten in the midst of its rotten government. - - - -

God made the river: let the Argentine Government turn it to account. The neglect of that river is a greater crime than that of a great railway. The ten years' record shows that we have made no better use of the valley than the savages of old.

PATAGONIAN CURIOSITIES

We had the pleasure of a visit yesterday from Major Mistre, Surgeon of the Argentine Navy, who takes a lively interest in all matters affecting the progress of the Patagonian territory. The gallant Major walked into our sanctum bearing in his arms the most extraordinary piece of gypsum it has ever been our lot to look at. Whether a silicated part of the human body, or a freak in the formation of the gypsum, the load under which Major Mistre staggered bears a strong resemblance to the build and bust of a female, perhaps the crystalized remains of some Patagonian Queen several thousand years old.

We invite our readers and scientists in general to inspect the specimen in our office, as it is a most interesting object. We have also been favored with two excellent samples of gypsum which we recommend to the inspection of engineers, contractors, and builders in general. This gypsum is shipped to Buenos Ayres along with cement, and herein we see the foundation to a very great industry in the South.

Major Mistre intends sending the gypsum bust to the Buenos Ayres Museum, and we have no doubt that Dr. Burmeister, the great savant, will willingly make room for such a curious freak in the gypsum formation, though it may not prove to be the remains of man.

PLAZA EUSKARA.

LAST MATCH OF THE OFFICIAL SEASON.

HAIR-RAISING ENTHUSIASM.

ELICEGUI THE CHAMPION BALL-PLAYER.

The Plaza Euskara was crowded on Sunday, it being the wind-up day of the official season. The first match between Irun and Portalito v. Samperio and Osoro resulted in an easy win for the former, owing to the brilliant form of Irun and the deplorable incapacity of Osoro, who from being the second 'zaguero' in the Euskara is now perhaps fit only to play with those of second order. Then came the match of the day, a match that has crowned Eliceguí with laurels, stamped him as the first player in the Plaza, and marked an epoch in the annals of ball-playing that reminded old 'aficionados' of the historic games of the 1888 season. To appreciate the play properly, it is necessary first to define the conditions under which the players met. On the previous Sunday Eliceguí and Recondo jr. beat Portal and Otegui by 19 points, Portal having a ½ distance advantage in the service. On Thursday Eliceguí had Otegui and Portal Recondo Jr. the latter conceding the distance in the service and being beaten by 3 points, and on Sunday Eliceguí and Otegui played Portal and Recondo Jr. on even terms, which, considering the respective merits of the two "zagueros" meant that Eliceguí was virtually conceding Portal a full distance in the service. The game at first was rather dull Eliceguí played brilliantly but without effort, taking Portal's services in a manner known as "reves del aire," and as Portal was all at sea, nervous, and weak, Eliceguí though, not playing up to his best form, kept in front all the way up to 34. At this period of the game Portal pulled himself together and ably, seconded by his companion, for the first time got in front, keeping his advantage up to 44, Eliceguí at that time having only 40 to his credit, principally due to the weakness of Otegui. Then came the famous "entrada" or spurt. Point after point he gained on his adversaries in spite of the brilliant play of Recondo and vigorous punishment of Portal. The latter had resource to all his brilliant expedients, "cortadas," 'rasantes,' 'dos paredes,' and 'largas,' but to no effect. Eliceguí was everywhere, smashing in distance 8 and 9, raising the ball out to 14 with his incomparable "reves", or finishing off the ace with ferocious "cortada." The next important phase of the game, which was to 50 points, was Eliceguí 49 and Portal 47. The enthusiasm was at boiling point, but odds were freely bet on Eliceguí, who had the service, of 100 to 50. It seemed, however, as if he was destined to lose. Whether through carelessness or bad play, probably the former, in serving he caught the front wall very high and the ball went over the division line, giving the ace to his opponents, who then had 48 to 49. The enthusiasm by this time was seething over, but when Portal succeeded in getting another ace off Otegui and put the game at 49 all, the excitement was beyond description. The 4000 or 5000 persons present rose to a man in their seats, and we are credibly informed that many felt their hats rising on their heads as the hair stood on end. Portal, however, was nervous and Eliceguí cool as a cucumber. At last the anguish was relived. Taking the wall side Portal made one of his cannon-ball services, but it was arrested by a splendid smash from Eliceguí, who was doubtlessly distrustful of his companion's state of mind. Recondo got the ball back again, and again Eliceguí got in with a 'cortado,' which although going well into Portal's hands, the latter missed, thus losing a most exciting game by one ace.

RACING AT PALERMO

A fine day succeeding the miserable weather of Saturday, Sunday's meeting was brought off with great eclat and will be memorable for the facile triumph of Indécis in the chief event, for the miserable exhibitions of jockeyship (or rather the want of it) in the first and last races, and for the absence of any trotting event, a fact universally commented on in favourable terms.

From the start, Indécis held the trump card for the Premio Porteño, nothing having a chance with him. He won as easily as possible, buy was fortunate that two of his most formidable opponents were disabled, Havre by illness and Cormeilles by the extraordinary riding of his jockey, who deliberately taking an outside course and going round every turn as wide as possible, thus chose to go some considerable extra distance, so handicapping himself out of the race. Porteñito, as usual, ran boldly and well, but recent form was considerably discounted when Monarque made a comparatively inoffensive show.

In the Premio Apertura, Wanda could have won by 10 lengths, but the boy stupidly easing her into a walk, was unable to set her going again when Tongo came with a rush, and so suffered defeat by half a length. The cracks Westminster and Holland were absentees from the Premio Kemmis and consequently little interest attached to the race, although Acheron easily demonstrated his superiority to his moderate opponents. On public form, Surplice seemed a certainty for the Premio Velocidad, and his running, though unsuccessful, actually proved this, for getting badly off, his jockey was incapable of aiding his mount to join his horses till the distance where the old black, without the slightest assistance from his rider, made a superb effort and, making up about 6 lengths of his leeway, seemed to snatch the race out of the fire, but the judge being of a different opinion, awarded the first place to Colibri by half a head. Much as we sympathise with the owners of Surplice, we cannot altogether absolve them from the charge of want of judgment in putting into saddle of a well backed animal a mannikin physically incapable of extending his mount and whose exhibitions always cause hilarity to the heedless and grief to the judicious.

THROUGH THE DARK CONTINENT ONCE MORE.

THE STORY OF STANLEY'S GREAT MARCH.

MONTHS IN THE GLOOM OF A PRIMEVAL FOREST.

A TERRIBLE RECORD OF DISASTER AND DEATH.

DETAILS OF THE MEETING WITH EMIN.

The Stanley letter to the Chairman of the Emin Pasha Relief Committee, which is dated—"Bungangeta Island, Ituri River, or Aruwimi River, August 28, 1888," is full of thrilling interest.

The column of 389 officers and men set out on June 28, 1887, and though at first the resident population, by firing their villages and by every art known to the native mind, sought to molest and injure the expedition, for thirty-four days its course was singularly successful; but then they reached a wilderness, which it took them nine days to get through. On the 31st of August the force, having lost sixty-six of its number by desertions, fell in with what Stanley had been desperately anxious to avoid—a party of Arabs—who he was afraid might induce his men to desert, and from this time until the 12th of November the story is one of starvation, desertion and struggle through a region devastated by the Arabs.

"AN AWFUL MONTH: WE WERE SKELETONS."

On the 18th of October—over three months and a half from his start—the expedition entered the settlement occupied by Kilonga-Longa, a Zanzibari slave belonging to Abed bin Salim, an old Arab, whose bloody deeds are recorded in "The Congo and the Founding of its Free State.' "This proved an awful month to us; not one member of the expedition, white or black, will ever forget it. The advance numbered 273 souls on leaving Ugarrowwa's, because out of 389 we had lost 66 men by desertion and death between Yambuya and Ugarrowwa's, and had left fifty-six men sick in the Arab station. On reaching Kilonga-Longa's we discovered we had lost fifty-five men by starvation and desertion. We had lived principally on wild fruit, fungi, and a large, flat, beanshaped nut. The slaves of Abed bin Salim did their utmost to ruin the expedition. Short of open hostilities, they purchased rifles, ammunition, clothing, so that when we left their station we were beggared and our men were absolutely naked. We were so weak physically that we were unable to carry the boat and about seventy loads of goods; we therefore left these goods and boat at Kilonga-Longa's under Surgeon Parke and Captain Nelson, the latter of whom was unable to march, and after twelve days' march we arrived at a native settlement called Ibwiri. Between Kilonga-Longa's and Ibwiri our condition had not improved. The Arab devastation had reached within a few miles of Ibwiri—a devastation so complete that there was not one native hut standing between Ugarrowwa's and Ibwiri; and what had not been destroyed by the slaves of Ugarrowwa and Ibwiri bin Salim the elephants destroyed and turned the whole region into a horrible wilderness. But at Ibwiri we were beyond the utmost reach of the destroyers; we were on virgin soil, in a populous region abounding with food. Our suffering from hunger, which began on the 31st of August, terminated on the 12th of November. Ourselves and men were skeletons. Out of 389 we now only numbered 174, several of whom seemed to have no hope of life left. A halt was therefore ordered for the people to recuperate."

TWO MEN HANGED AS AN EXAMPLE.

"Hitherto our people were sceptical of what we told them, the suffering had been so awful, calamities so numerous, the forest so endless apparently, that they refused to believe that by-and-bye we should see plains and cattle and the Nyanza, and the white man, Emin Pasha. We felt as though we were dragging them along with a chain round our necks. "Beyond these raiders lies a country untouched, where food is abundant, and where you will forget your miseries, so cheer up, boys; be men, press on a little faster." They turned a deaf ear to our prayers and entreaties, for driven by hunger and suffering, they sold their rifles and equipments for a few ears of Indian corn, deserted with the ammunition, and were altogether demoralized. Perceiving that prayers and entreaties and mild punishments were of no avail, I then resorted to visit upon the wretches the death penalty. Two of the worst cases were accordingly taken and hanged in presence of all."

REVELRY FOLLOWED BY FIGHTING.

We halted thirteen days in Ibwiri and revelled in fowls, goats, bananas, corn, sweet potatoes, yams, beans, &c. The supplies were inexhaustible, and the people glutted themselves; the effect was such that I had 173—one was killed by an arrow—mostly sleek and robust men when I set out for the Albert Nyanza on the 24th of November. They were still 126 miles from the lake; but, given food, such a distance seemed nothing. On the 5th of December we emerged upon the plains, and the deadly, gloomy forest was behind us After one hunded and sixty days' continuous gloom we saw the light of broad day shining all around us, and making all things beautiful. We thought we had never seen grass so green or country so lovely. The men literally yelled and leaped with joy, and raced over the ground with their burdens. But the inhabitants of the thickly scattered villages which they reached within the next three or four days, by order of the powerful chief Mazambori resented and resisted their advance. Seizing a hill and building a zariba as fast as billhooks could cut brushwood, Stanley attacked the natives with tact and boldness, Lieutenant Stairs being sent with women to seize a distant village, Mr. Jephson being despatched with thirty men east, and a choice body of sharphooters being ordered to test the courage of the natives descending the slope of the highest range; and quickly they were all in flight.

THE ALBERT NYANZA REACHED

On the 13th of December, after another fight with opposing natives, the Albert Nyanza was reached. Fifteen minutes later I cried out, "Prepare yourselves for a sight of the Nyanza." The men murmured and doubted, and said, "Why does the master continually talk to us in this way? Nyanza, indeed! Is not this a plain, and can we not see mountains at east four days' march ahead of us." At 1.30 p.m. the Albert Nyanza was below them. Now it was my turn to jeer and scoff at the doubters, but as I was about to ask them what they saw, so many came to kiss my hands and beg my pardon that I could not say a word. This was my reward. We were at an altitude of 5,200 ft. above the sea. The Albert Nyanza was over 2,900 ft. below us. We stood in 1 deg. 20 min. N. lat.; the south end of the Nyanza lay largely mapped out beneath us about six miles south of this position. Difficulties were again met with—the natives declining all approaches to friendliness, and sometimes actively resisting the advance; and as Stanley could not get the loan of a canoe—"to seize a canoe without the excuse of a quarrel my conscience would not permit,' says Stanley—190 miles had to be retraced by Lieutenant Stairs and part of the expedition to bring up a boat, which came up along with Surgeon Peck and Captain Nelson. In January, 1888, the explorer was ill for a month with gastritis and an abscess on the arm. Then forty-seven days having expired he set out again for the Albert Nyanza. On April 26 we arrived in Mozamboni's country once again, but this time after solicitation Mozamboni decided to make blood brotherhood with him, and food was supplied liberally gratis.

A NOTE FROM EMIN PASHA.

One day's march from the Nyanza the natives came from Kavalli and said that a white man named "Maleza" had given their chief a black packet to give to me, his son. Would I follow them? "Yes, to-morrow," I answered, "and if your words are true I will make you rich." They remained with us that night, telling us wonderful stories about "big ships as large as islands filled with men," &c., which left no doubt in our mind that this white man was Emin Pasha. The next day's march brought us to the chief Kavalli, and after a while he handed me a note from Emin Pasha, covered with a strip of black American oilcloth. The note was to the effect that as there had been a native rumour to the effect that a white man had been seen at the south end of the lake he had gone in his steamer to make inquiries, but had been unable to obtain reliable information, as the natives were terribly afraid of Kabbo-Rega, King of Unyoro, and connected every stranger with him. However, the wife of the Nyamsassie chief had told a native ally of his named Mogo that she had seen us in Mrusuma (Mozamboni's country). He therefore begged me to remain where I was until he could communicate with me. The note was signed (Dr.) Emin," and dated March 26.

MR. STANLEY MEETS EMIN AND CASATI

The next day, April 23, Mr. Jephson was despatched with a strong force of men to take the boat to the Nyanza. On the 26th the boat's crew sighted Mswa station, the southernmost belonging to Emin Pasha, and Mr. Jephson was there hospitably received by the Egyptian garrison. The boat's crew say that they were embraced one by one, and that they never had such attention shown to them as by these men, who hailed them as brothers. On the 29th of April we once again reached the bivouac ground occupied by us on the 16th of December, and at 5 p.m. of that day I saw the Khedive steamer about seven miles away steaming up towards us. Soon after 7 p.m. Emin Pasha and Signor Casati and Mr. Jephson arrived at our camp, where they were heartily welcomed by all of us. The next day we moved to a better camping place, about three miles above Nymasassie, and at this spot Emin Pasha also made his camp; we were together until the 25th of May. On that day I left him, leaving Mr. Jephson, three Soudanese, and two Zanzibaris in his care, and in return he caused to accompany me three of his irregulars and 120 Madi natives as porters.

A TERRIBLE RECORD

Mr. Stanley then describes his return to Fort Bedo, en route to the place where he had left Major Barttelot. On August 17 (he says) we met the rear column of the expedition at a place called Banalya, or, as the Arabs have corrupted it, Unarya. There was a white man at the gate of the stockade, who it at first thought was Mr. Jameson, but a nearer view revealed the features of Mr. Bonny, who left the medical service of the army to accompany us.

"Well, my dear Bonny, where is the Major?"

"He is dead, sir, shot by the Manyuema about a month ago."

"Good God! And Mr. Jameson?"

"He has gone to Stanley Falls to try and get some more men from Tippoo Tib."

"And Mr. Troup?"

"Mr. Troup has gone home, sir, invalided."

"Hem! well, where is Ward?"

"Mr. Ward is at Bangala, sir."

"Heavens alive! then you are the only one here?"

"Yes, sir."

I found the rear column a terrible wreck. Out of 257 men there were only 71 remaining. Out of these only 52, on mustering them, seemed fit for service, and these mostly were scarecrows. The advance had performed the march from Yambuya to Banalya in 16 days, despite native opposition. The rear column performed the same distance in 43 days. According to Mr. Bonny during the 13 months and 20 days that had elapsed since I had left Yambuya the record is only one of disaster, desertion, and death.

THE GREAT FOREST.

We were one hundred and sixty days in the forest—one continuous unbroken compact forest. The grass land was traversed by us in eight days. The limits of the forest along the edge of the grass land are well marked. We saw it extending north-easterly with its curves and bays and capes just like a seashore. Southwesterly it preserved the same character. North and south the forest area extends from Nyangwe to the southern borders of the Monbuttu; east and west it embraces all from the Congo, at the mouth of Aruwimi, to about east longitude 29 deg.—40 deg. How far west beyond the Congo the forest reaches I do not know. The superficial extent of the tract thus described—totally covered by forest—is 240,000 square miles. North of the Congo, between Upoto and the Aruwimi the forest embraces another 20,000 square miles.

WHAT EMIN PASHA SAID.

Before closing my letter let me touch more at large on the subject which brought me to this land—viz., Emin Pasha. The Pasha has two batallion of regulars urder him—the first consisting of about 750 rifles, occupies Dufile, Honyu, Laboré, Muggi, Kirri, Bedden, Rejaf; the second battalion consisting of 640 men, guards the stations of Wadelai Fatiko, Mahagi and Mswa, a line of communications along the Nyanza and Nile about 180 geographical miles in length. In the interior west of the Nile he retains three or four small stations—fourteen in all. Besides these two battalions he has quite a respectable force of irregulars, sailors, artisans, clerks, servants. "Altogether," if I consent to go away from here we shall have about 8,000 people with us."

"Were I in your place I would not hesitate one moment or be a second in doubt what to do."

"What you say is quite true, but we have such a large number of women and children, probably 10,000 people altogether. How can they all be brought out of here? We shall want a great number of carriers."

"Carriers! carriers for what?" I asked.

"For the women and children. You surely would

De un esplendido area de campo flor en el partido de Ranchos, estancia conocida por de Thorp, el Monte Cuadrado y la Azotea 2295 hectareas alambradas, con poblaciones montes etc inmediato a las estaciones del F. C. del Sd; Jeppener, Altamirano y Alegre, base infirma 140 $ hectareas, vale triple, con 150,000 $ cedulas serie A oro. En nuestra casa Alsina 482.

El Jueves 9 de Mayo,
A las 2 p. m.

Remataremos por cuenta y orden de su propietario y condiciones que se estipularan mas abajo; el renombrado establecimiento de campo conocido por La Azoten y Monte Curdrado, antes perteneciente a la testamentaria de Thorp ubicado en el partido de Ranchos a una y media legua de la estacion Jeppener e igual distancia mas o menos de las de Altamirano y Alegre; campo flor dividido en cuatro potreros perfectamente alambrado con 6 hilos, postes de fiandubay, y las poblaciones Monte Cuadrado de 3 plezas de materiai techo de teja, monte de arboles frutales y otras; hay ademas alguna arboleda donde existian antes puestos que ya no son taperas; la poblacion de la Azotea se compone de 3 piezas de material con techo de teja, alambrado de primer orden con tranquera al camino general.

Es campo inmejorable para invernada de hacienda lo mismo que para agricultura y formacion de un centro agricola, por tener tres estaciones del F. C. del Sud a tan corta distancia; es a no dudar una de las mejores de campo que mayor porvenir ofrecen, ya sea para explotarse personalmente o para la especulacion, pues dentro de muy poco tiempo valdra mas del triple de su actual precio, haciendo la fortuna de quien lo adquiera.

Para que los interesados puedan visitar esta propiedad, habra todos los Jueves y Domingos un coche en la estacion Jeppener para llevar los interesados.

Con el fin de realizar la venta de su propietario actualmente en Europa, ha fijado para el objecto una base bajisima, pues nosotros reputamos que actualmente vale mucho mas que 140 ps. la hetarea por cupo precio se vendera siempre que haya postores.

Esta alhaja se puede adquirir con muy poca plata, haciendose cargo el comprador de la hipoteca que reconoce 150,000 ps. oro de la serie A provinciales.

Llamamos la attencion de los especuladores sobre esta esplendida propiedad.

Planos y pormenoses se obtienen en nuestra casa Alzina 482.

Centro Agricola "Castelli"
En la estacion GUERRERO, F.C.S.
Esta ubicado entre las Estaciones
Guerrero y Taillade
Lindando con las dos Estaciones

Esta ya pedida por el Gobierno a la empresa del Ferro-carril del Sud una estacion en este Centro Agricola.

Las tierras que componen este Centro son inmejorables; lo mismo que las de Castelli. Es necesario verlas para poder apreciarlas y convencerse que son las mas apropiadas para la agricultura, no solo por ser tierras altisimas y vegetales, sino por las facilidades que ofrece para el transporte de sus productos y a este respecto se encuentra en condiciones escepcionales pues sobre estar ubicado entre las estaciones Guerrero y Taillade de la Empresa del Ferra-carril del Sud. Se ha solicitado establecer otra estacion en este centro.

La adquisicion de esta tierra puede hacerse sin desembolso, pues reconocen un gravamen hipotecario de $130 mn hectares en cedulas de la Serie N cuyo precio de $430 la hectarea será la base para la venta.

En estas condiciones el colono puede continuar con la hipoteca, redimiendola en los años que debe durar.

Estas tierras están acojidas á los beneficios de la ley de centros agricolas cuyas articulos principales transcribimos.

Art. 22—Los propietarios de tierras en los Centros Agricolas gozarán de una rebaja de veintecinco por ciento en los fletes establecidos para el transporte de su produccion en los Ferro-carriles.

Art. 41—Los creditos que el Banco de la Provincia acuerde á los propietarios de Centros agricolas, seran amortizadas con un diez por ciento anual.

Art. 42—Toda escritura de concesion de Tierras que haga el Estado o las empresas en estos Centros se otorgara en papel simple quedando por consecuencia exenta de todo impuesto de ellos por esta causa.

Art. 44—Quedan exentos de todo impuesto y de Contribucion Directa durante el termino de tres años, los compradores de los Centros Agricolas que se formen de acuerdo á la presente ley y en consecuencia no podran ser molestados, por esta causa por autoridad alguna de la Paovincia.

Art. 45—Todo conces'onario de tierras en los Centros Agricolas, tendran derecho de viajar en los Ferro-carriles de la Provincia dos veces al año, la boleta respectiva que sera intransferible, se otorgara por el Gefe de la Estacion respectiva, previa presentacion de la orden expedida por la oficina de Agricultura.

Las tierras se venderan varios lotes de Pueblo y quintas sin cédulas y sin base, a la mas alta postura por metro cuadrado.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's
CHLORODYNE.
THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE

Advice to Invalids.—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by D. J. Collis Brown, (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5, 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russel Street, Bloomsbury, London
Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the widespread reputation this justly esteemed medicine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan; but all over the East. As a remedy for general utility, we must question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are so sorry to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances "ad infinitum" of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's from a firm Conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a deliberate Breach of Faith on the part of the Chemist to prescribe and Patient alike. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes and Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain. To Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.

Caution.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr J Collis Browne, was undoubtedly, the Inventor of chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See "The Times," July 13, 1864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1 1|2d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

Caution.—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.

Sole Manufacturer—J. T. DAVENPORT, 33 Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London. 397 ap3 oc3 2pw

To-morrow's liquidation will bring to a close another stormy speculation, and memory must travel far back to seek a precedent for the vicissitudes through which the sovereign shares, not unscathed, have passed this month. At the opening of the month they gave promise of realizing the most sanguine expectations entertained of them, but later on they began to waver, then to decline, and finally to tumble in most demoralizing fashion, shaking the position of the market to its very centre. It is worthy of note, however, that the losers this month by the fall, which embraces some 17 points, are the strongest people in the market. Failures, it is true, are talked of, but as yet it is confined to talk; no names are mentioned, and the speculative surface is still, so to speak, unruffled. Momentous, no doubt, to-morrow's liquidation will be, but apprehension is not very widely awake, and many think that matters, instead of growing worse, as the situation would portend, will mend. As for the gold premium, it was firm to-day at from 156.70 to 157, and will in all probability take a downward route after the weight of the liquidation is over. In produce circles everything looks promising, and taking one thing with another, though the market is not exactly in a normal state, neither is it labouring in the throes of even a semi-crisis.

Business at the first ring to-day was most important. The sovereign stock again fell off to an alarming extent, closing weak for all dates; and although holders are confident of a reaction this month it is more than probable that the quotations will go even lower still before they begin to rally. Another disquieting feature was the tumble in Cedulas; the National series, at least those quoted, C and D, not only held their own, but even improved, but the Provincial series were all weak-kneed, with the exception of K. M dropped to 76.50 for cash and 76 for end of month; N to 76.50 for cash and 76.60 end of month; O to 75.10, though it afterwards improved to 75.50. This caused much comment in the hall, and the terrible abundance of the stock and the probabilities of fresh issues were generally set down as the cause. Constructors held their own at 131.50. Credito Real improved to 138 for end of month and 141 end of May, but Flores Constructors dropped back to 110. La Plata Moles were steady, operations being confined to end of May. A lot of El Banco Sud-Americano Shares marked on the Board at 85 was generally descredited, but we know of a sale made a short time ago, 100 shares at 80 cash, which were afterwards disposed of in the ring at 94, thus lending a certain amount of credit to the quotation.

The following is a summary of operations effected this afternoon during the first ring:—

Another important sale of camp. Mr. Robertson Grant has sold the Remington Estancia, Coronel Suarez, containing three square leagues, at 125,000 dollars the league, which gives about 78 dollars the square.

To-morrow being liquidation day, the Cam. Sindical have suppressed the two ordinary rings, establishing one from 2.30 to 3.30 p.m., balances to be handed in to liquidator before 2 p.m, instead of 12 o'clock as formerly.

The meeting of Argentine Gas shareholders announced for to-morrow will not come off until May 6th, a sufficient number of shares not having been deposited.

The Spanish barque Dos Hermanos, chartered by Messrs. P. Morales and Co., has been despatched for Cuba with a cargo of 7,000 qq. jerked beef.

The assisted-passage system to foment immigration is giving rise to abuses that should be looked to at once by the authorities. Amongst the Sirio's passengers there are some hundred Italians who bought their tickets from others for various considerations, probably oblivions of the fact that the names on the tickets were apt to convict them on arrival.

To-day Mr. Thomas Duggan, President of the "Cerro Carril Pobladores" turned the first sod for the new line of railway which this company constructs from Belgrano to the Tigre. We hold for our next the 'acta' drawn up on the occasion. Mr. Nouguier, Mr. Panelo, Mr. J. B. Gahan and escribano Sagasta assisted, also Mr. Williams and Mr. Wilkinson, C.E. Fifty workmen at once commenced the works, which will now be pushed ahead. The company, we hear, owns 4½ million square metres along the line.

The Sud America fairly staggered all the brokers on 'Change this evening by publishing in a portion of the merchants signatures to the resolutions approving Minister Varela's decree abolishing the gold speculation. People who want to know the commercial opinion on the subject ought to throw their eyes over the columns and columns of signatures.

It was rumoured on 'Change this morning that an advance of 1½ million in paper had been made to a house on a deposit of a million gold dollars, but we doubt much that there is any truth in the rumour.

Messrs. Schutzer, Young and Co. have obtained the contract for a large portion of the works under Mr. Medici for the City Improvement Works.

Owing to the interruption to business caused by the commercial demonstration in the Plaza, the Bolsa was half empty in the afternoon, and gold, which ruled so hard at 157.50 in the morning, fell more than half a point in the afternoon.

The exchange market is reported very firm, although there is little doing. The rate is 47¾d. in sterling.

The R. M. S. Atrato is on the way to the Plate. She left Lisbon on the afternoon of the 22nd and San Vicente on Saturday night at 11 p. m. At this rate of steaming she may be expected in Montevideo on 6th or 7th of May.

We have received a prospectus from the firm of MacNill, Murray & Co. with regard to the advantages of the Cera lamps for steamers, trains and trams. A trial takes place to-night at the Central Station, and there is little doubt that the lamps will equal all expectations. For safety we believe they are unequalled.

Business at the second ring was on similar lines to that of the morning. Banco Nacional shares tumbled to 249 for end of month, and to 255 for end of May, but it is said there are still very heavy lots to be unloaded, and to-morrow may tell a very sorry tale. As for the other stocks, they all showed a bold front. Credito Real improved its rates to 138 for end of month, and 141 for end of May. La Plata Moles were similarly bouyant, and even Constructores, which at one time betrayed a weakish tendency, closed firm at 130 for to-morrow and 134½ for end of May. In cedulas the National series were firm and buoyant, and the Provincial kinds weak.

The following is a summary of operations effected this evening at the second ring:—

Paper was reported rather scarce to-day, being quoted at from 12 to 15 per cent, although some stocks were passed at 2 per cent a month. The banks, as usual at end of month, restricted discounts.

A notice was posted on the Bolsa from the National Bank to-day announcing that with regard to the brokers' applications for gold to close the liquidation, the rates set down by the brokers need not be considered binding, the bank undertaking to supply the gold required at the market rate.

A telegram was received from the Bolsa correspondent announcing that the F. C. Central Paraguayo Company has launched £700,000 on the London market in shares and debentures.

At the meeting of shareholders of the London and Brazilian Bank, Limited, held in London on the 12th inst., a most favourable Report and balance sheet was presented by the Board, which shews the strong and leading position now occupied by the bank. The Report, which was accepted "nem. con." recommended that of the £22,690 representing the profits, the sum of £35,000 should be carried to the reserve fund, making the latter up to £360,000, a further sum of £12,690 6s. 3d. to credit of profit and loss new account, and the remainder to be distributed in dividend, the shareholders thus getting 8s. per share dividend and 8s. per share bonus which with the 8s. per share interim dividend paid in October last gives a 12 o/o dividend for the year clear of income tax. These figures speak well for the sound management of the bank.

Property in San Nicolas is fast going up in value. A few days ago a lot of ground contain 32,000 square yards was disposed of at a dollar the square yard, it having cost the seller a short time previously a fifth of the price.

With regard to the Florida market sold a few days ago to Mr. Hector Quesada it was said to-day that the Club de Progreso are in treaty for its purchase.

A new Mortgage Bank for La Plata on the lines of the Buenos Aires Mortgage Bank is spoken of, but it seems that Governor Paz does not fall in with the idea, so that it will probaly fall to the ground. And so best, the tack of the province is certainly not in Mortgage Banks or Cedulas.

Mr. Cadmus leaves in a few days for Montevideo and thence for Europe, where he intends to permanently reside, having been appointed the agent in Germany of Messrs. Samuel B. Hale and Co. of this market. We all regret Mr. Cadmus's departure, notwithstanding that he retires on a very large fortune, and we hope that business will bring him back again to the Plate where he has such a host of friends.

We take the following from the London Standard of 3rd inst.:—

"Argentine descriptions were well supported by foreign buying. Large blocks of recent issues are held in Paris, and will be realized gradually if the market keeps up. The 1884 and Hard Dollar Bonds improved ¼, and Cedula B Bonds ½. These last are now quoted at 54¼. Three Buenos Aires issues also improved ¼. Some buying occurred in Peruvian Bonds, on good news, it was vaguely said, but there is no such news. Turkish 1854 bonds improved 1, and the grouped stocks ¼ to ¼.

"Copper mine Shares were again firm, but the wave of speculation has left all descriptions of Mine Shares for the present, and rushed into the Home Railway Market, and Copper Shares, although good in a sense, were nearly as inactive as the rest. Rio Tinto were lifted to 12 3/16 on the repurchase of 2090 Shares open for a speculator for a fall, but they closed at 12, or only ¼ higher than yesterday. Namaqua, Tharsis, Mason and Barry, and Cape Copper were helped by this rise, and closed ¼ to ¼ up. Histories about a new combination to sustain copper at or near £40 per ton also helped the market, but there is no substantiality in them. No combination is possible against the reduced consumption, which it may take years to bring back to its 1887 level."

The Argentine Car and Wagon Building Company has been formed, according to private advices, in this city with a capital of $2,500,000. The founders are people of well-known practical and financial ability and anticipate great success for the concern. They will undertake the building of railway carriages and waggons, as well as tramcars, carriages, carts, etc., and will be undoubtedly a great help to the different companies. More such companies as these and less banks would materially assist Minister Varela in cutting down the gold premium.

The s.s. Rosario arrived in port to-day with 600 passengers and 290 tons for here and 40 passengers and 400 tons for Rosario.

The s.s. Heraclides, Houston Line, has arrived in Montevideo, 21 days' voyage, from Liverpool.
